2022-2023 SIGNATURE SERIES

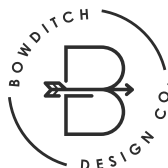

THANK YOU

TO OUR 2022/23 SEASON SPONSORS

SPECIAL THANKS TO

W E L C O M E

TO THE JSO'S 2022/23 SEASON

The Jackson Symphony Orchestra is proud to present its 73rd concert season. When we returned to the stage last season, we felt the overwhelming support and enjoyment from our audience and community. The JSO has always taken our energy from you – our loyal audience. This past year has reinforced our desire to engage, collaborate, and bring our community TOGETHER to create dynamic performances.

Here's what you can expect this concert season:

This year's Signature Series celebrates the many organizations and people in our community. We will collaborate with Conductor Laureate Stephen Osmond and showcase the Jackson Youth Symphony Orchestra, Ballet Chelsea, Jackson-native speed painter Evan Struck, and the Jackson Choral. The music chosen for this season has been written by composers from a variety of backgrounds. We will perform symphonies written by familiar composers like Shostakovich, Sibelius, and Mahler as well as works by Ravel and Mussorgsky. In addition, we are excited to perform pieces by living composers such as Camille Pepin, and newly commissioned works by Bruce Brown and Jeremy Crosmer! Talented soloists William Westney (piano), Leelanee Sterrett

(French horn), Amy McCabe (trumpet), Mahan Esfahani (harpichord), Ida Kavafian (violin), and Donata Cucinotta (soprano) will grace the stages of the Potter Center and Weatherwax Hall.

This summer, courtesy of County National Bank, the JSO will be able to once again offer our summer pops concert for free in Horace Blackman Park. In the fall, we will be introducing a Halloween Children's Concert in the Michigan Theatre for a spooky celebration that's perfect for the whole family! The Nutcracker has become a holiday tradition at the JSO and this year's performances will be extra special as it is the 25th anniversary of Ballet Chelsea's version. In the spring, come join us in the Michigan Theatre for our Music of Harry Potter concert. Be sure to check out the popular Music on Tap series, which takes place at the JSO's Weatherwax Hall in the heart of Jackson. Finally, take the time to listen to or purchase a copy of our first recording of our Equal Billing Project, Fernande Decruck: Concertante Works released in June 2022.

EPIC MAHLER

APRIL 22 | 7:30 PM

Mahler believed that “A symphony must be like the world, it must embrace everything.” His 3rd Symphony is an epic display of this concept. A huge, majestic orchestra accompanied by both children’s and women’s choruses and a mezzo soprano soloist to boot. This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience to hear this monumental work live.

INDIE FOLK
FT. BRIAN DUNNE

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

Dunne writes with a cinematic eye for detail, offering up fully fleshed-out character studies and immersive vignettes that capture the kind of small, seemingly inconsequential moments that only later reveal their profound and lasting impacts. It's an approach that calls to mind everything from Jackson Browne and Tom Waits to Jonathan Richman and Chrissie Hynde, and the result is a blend of dark humor and probing introspection that sounds at once vintage and modern, familiar and foreign, hopeful and fatalistic.

LUSH AND ETHEREAL
FT. GRACIE AND RACHEL

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

Opposites attract with this dynamic pop duo. Classically trained introvert Rachel and free-spirit extrovert Gracie collide to create their unique sound of modern baroque pop. "We used to joke that Rachel gave me structure and I gave her freedom," says Gracie. "That was our foundation in a way. And then we just started to dance with the two."

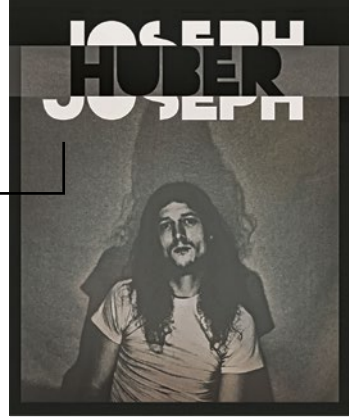

JANUARY

BLUEGRASSH-ISH
FT. JOSEPH HUBER

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

Our Music on Tap series loves to blur the lines between genres, bringing unique musical experiences from all over the world to Jackson, Michigan. Joseph Huber's musical style is no exception to this. Whether it's irresistible, fiddle-driven, dancing tunes or honest, heart-wrenching "songwriter" songs, Huber's songs and shows span the spectrum of 'Roots' music while preferring not to stay within the boundaries of any strict genre classification.

JAZZ NIGHT
FT. BEN ROSENBLUM

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

Our fan-favorite Jazz night returns, bringing award-winning jazz pianist and accordionist Ben Rosenblum back to Weatherwax Hall. Rosenblum has toured the world with a trio and sextet, performing his unique style of Jazz. His original music combines his extensive knowledge of jazz history with a free-wheeling, modern melodic sensibility and powerful narrative approach to the piano. His passion for jazz, swing, and world music is expressed in his eclectic fusions of harmonic and rhythmic elements. Ben's first priority in his composition and in his playing is always narrative – to tell a compelling story with his music, while reaching the hearts of his audience, connecting on an emotional, intellectual and spiritual level.

IRISH FESTIVAL FT. THE FOUNDING

Everyone's favorite St. Patrick's Day celebration returns! The Founding is a Progressive Folk band with roots in traditional Irish music. With their timeless, powerful approach to songwriting and unique instrumentation, they strive to balance tradition and innovation as they bring new music to life. Be sure to get your tickets to this sellout event early to secure your spot!

MAY

INDIE
FT. FRANCES LUKE ACCORD

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

When Nicholas Gunty and Brian Powers put their songs and voices together, there is a delicate magic that commands the room to attention. The duo is known as Frances Luke Accord, and they are what NPR's Mountain Stage calls "the definition of lean-in music." Their soft, contemplative vintage of indie-folk gestures toward a timelessness that honors the Simon & Garfunkel comparisons but pushes beyond into the world of Bon Iver, Jose Gonzalez, and progressive folk music.

SUMMER POPS 2022 HEROES AND HEROINES

Then, we'll take the second half of our concert to play some epic music to honor heroes from the common man to the many war heroes and veterans in our community. JACKSON SYMPHONY GUILD

The Jackson Symphony Guild functions exclusively for the benefit of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra. This dynamic group of volunteers works together to raise funds to support the JSO. In past years, contributions totaled 9% of the JSO's operating budget.

Funds are raised through membership dues and, most significantly, through the Annual Holiday Ball. In addition to supporting the JSO, the Guild provides community youth and young musicians summer scholarships to attend music camps as well as classes and lessons at the Community Music School.

Guild members are also active volunteers. The Holiday Ball provides the greatest opportunity to volunteer, whether you like to decorate or help run the silent auction. There are many short-term and long-term opportunities to get involved. Volunteers also host concert receptions and plan the Annual Meeting – a fun celebration of our accomplishments.

BASIC MEMBERSHIP – $25

An individual membership in the JSG.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIP – $45
