WELCOME

TO THE JSO'S 2023/24 SEASON

The Jackson Symphony Orchestra is pleased to present our 74th Classical Concert Series season and the 10th season of our Music on Tap Series. There is no denying the power of live music. The exchange of energy between the audience and performer benefits both and makes life better. We have been hard at work planning this season, and you can expect to see some new faces and old friends this year.

This year's Classical Concert Series (formerly Signature Series) theme is "Musical Greetings From..." Maestro Aubin has created a program highlighting music from different places, both by well-known composers like Aaron Copland, Felix Mendelssohn, and Maurice Ravel, and composers historically underrepresented like Camille Pépin, Grażyna Bacewicz, and Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel to name just a few.

The first half of the season focuses on American music, and we are pleased to welcome William Hagen for the first time and Jackson native Hannah Holman back home, for the first and second concerts of the year. In the second half of the season, we highlight talent on the rise, including French violin virtuoso Eva Zavaro, the return to Jackson of Swedish Chamber Orchestra concertmaster Clara Saitkoulov, and the winner of the Gilmore Piano Festival's Young Artist award.

Our Music on Tap Series celebrates its 10th season and expands to eight concerts. We continue to focus on bringing top-notch talent to Jackson. This season will include Jazz, Blues, the return of a comedy show with our friend Heywood Banks and our always-popular Irish Festival (this season headlined by a band from Scotland).

Our Summer Pops Concert continues to be a free event at Blackman Park. In addition, watch for another iteration of our Halloween Children's Concert at the Michigan Theatre of Jackson in the fall. Finally, we will again partner with Ballet Chelsea to bring you the return of The Nutcracker, a Holiday tradition for so many in our community.

None of this would be possible without you, and we genuinely appreciate your support and patronage. THANK YOU!

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS OF MUSIC

In the fall of 2023, our Music on Tap Series begins its 10th season! Things have changed quite a bit since our first concert in March of 2014, but our goal remains the same: to improve our community by bringing nationally and internationally touring musicians from multiple genres of music into the heart of downtown Jackson. In addition to the incredible music, each concert features a cash bar and other refreshments sponsored by Jim Winter GMC Buick, so make a night of it and come share “World Class Music, So Close to Home!”

SEPTEMBER 30 JAZZ NIGHT THE PHEROTONES

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

For all concerts, doors open at 7pm and show starts at 8pm.

Popular Ann Arbor based jazz band, The Pherotones, are coming to Weatherwax Hall! This group of talented musicians has a sound that's both classic and modern, blending the best of popular music with the timeless elegance of jazz standards. Their ability to improvise and riff off each other is truly something to behold. So grab a drink, settle in, and join us as we kick off our 10th season of Music on Tap!

OCTOBER 14 NEW BLUES BUFFALO NICHOLS

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Buffalo Nichols is breathing new life into the genre of blues. Since his earliest infatuations with guitar, he asked himself the same question: How can I bring the blues of the past into the future? After cutting his teeth between a Baptist church and bars in Milwaukee, it was a globetrotting trip that began to reveal the answer. “Part of my intent, making myself more comfortable with this release, is putting more Black stories into the genres of folk and blues,” guitarist, songwriter, and vocalist Carl “Buffalo” Nichols explains. You can see his revival of this influential genre in real time right here in Jackson when he plays at Weatherwax Hall.

NOVEMBER
18

SOULFUL SATURDAY
HARLEM GOSPEL TRAVELERS

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Harlem Gospel Travelers' music draws deeply on the gospel tradition of the '50s and '60s, but there's a modern edge to their sound. Their music is bold and resilient with explosive and ecstatic performances. Fueled by dazzling vocal arrangements, their sound is punctuated with gritty bursts of guitar and crunchy rhythm breaks. The Harlem Gospel Travelers aren't just reviving sounds from the past, they're revitalizing them for the present.

For all concerts, doors open at 7pm and show
starts at 8pm.

JANUARY
27

COMEDY NIGHT
HEYWOOD BANKS

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$25 ADVANCE | $30 AT DOOR

Heywood Banks returns to Weatherwax Hall for another comedy night after his 2022 sellout performance! Heywood is a simply one-of-a-kind, almost impossible to describe artist, with a style of his very own. Equal parts genius and buffoon, this songwriter-comic-singer-poet- musician has become a cult hero and a pop icon. His show appeals equally to college students, businessmen, yuppies, punks, kids, or your grandmother. Join us for a night of laughs at Weatherwax Hall!

FEBRUARY
17

INDIE POP
MIKI FIKI

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Nashville Indie darlings, Miki Fiki, bring their unique spin on alt-pop with their upbeat, jazzy, and funk-influenced songs. Powered by keys, drums, and saxophone, the trio brings a playfulness to their heartfelt music. Jazz/funk instrumentals combine with lyric-heavy verses and expansive harmonies to create a sonic landscape as indie as it is pop. One thing is certain, this band will take you on a tour through a dreamy lush landscape.

MARCH
16

IRISH FESTIVAL
DÀIMH

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$25 ADVANCE | $30 AT DOOR

Our fan-favorite sellout event returns! Join us with Dàimh, all the way from Scotland here to help us celebrate Celtic music. Dàimh, the Gaelic word for Connection, perfectly describes the electrifying musical interplay between this band's individual members and portrays the interaction with audiences attending their breathtaking live shows around the world. Formed over 20 years ago the group has embodied the current wave of resurgence in Gaelic culture; the current lineup includes younger musicians that have progressed and joined the 3 remaining founding members to continue the cycle of the tradition.

APRIL 20 MUSIC IN MOTION ONE MORE NIGHT FT. JOSH HENDERSON

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Josh Henderson brings together other contemporary Jazz titans—Rick Martinez, composer/guitarist Brendon Randall-Myers, Saxophonist Caroline Davis, and vocalist Sylvester Wallace, to weave the soundtrack for his original performance project, One More Night. One More Night puts music in motion by weaving Jazz, Classical and Rock styles with modern dance and theatrical elements, all based on an important bit of Mid-West History, “The Day the Music Died”.

MAY 04 BLUEGRASS-ISH JOSEPH HUBER

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Joseph Huber is returning to Jackson after a successful performance to a packed house last season. If you attended his previous concert, you know it will be worth tuning in again, and if you missed his bluegrass music last year, now is your chance to join the fun! Whether it's irresistible, fiddle-driven, dancing tunes or honest, heart-wrenching “songwriter” songs, Huber's music and performances span the spectrum of ‘Roots’ music while preferring not to stay within the boundaries of any strict genre classification.

JACKSON SYMPHONY GUILD

The Jackson Symphony Guild functions exclusively for the benefit of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra. This dynamic group of volunteers works together to raise funds to support the JSO. In past years, contributions totaled 9% of the JSO's operating budget.

Funds are raised through membership dues and, most significantly, through the Annual Holiday Ball. In addition to supporting the JSO, the Guild provides community youth and young musicians summer scholarships to attend music camps as well as classes and lessons at the Community Music School.

Guild members are also active volunteers. The Holiday Ball provides the greatest opportunity to volunteer, whether you like to decorate or help run the silent auction. There are many short-term and long-term opportunities to get involved. Volunteers also plan the Annual Meeting – a fun celebration of accomplishments.

ABOUT THE # JACKSON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Jackson Symphony Orchestra has a rich and vibrant history bringing world-class music to its community since 1949. The JSO has performed with many legendary figures including Pascal Rogé, Inon Barnatan, Vanessa Perez, Dizzy Gillespie, Grant Johannesen, Ed Asner, William Warfield, and Ralph Votapek. The orchestra has also toured with Mannheim Steamroller, Ann Murray, and the Manhattan Transfer. Since assuming the Music Director position in 2017, Matthew Aubin has catapulted the JSO to higher levels of artistic excellence. He has launched several innovative initiatives including partnerships with the Gilmore Keyboard Festival, the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, and Ballet Chelsea. In recent years, the JSO has also significantly expanded its community programming including educational programs for children, family programming, and a non-classical series titled 'Music-on-Tap' featuring touring musicians from many varied genres. The orchestra has premiered

MISSION

To provide world-class music & music education to the greater Jackson community.

VISION

The JSO is the musical leader in the greater Jackson area. We innovate and collaborate in ways that enrich and elevate our community and beyond.

works by such distinguished composers as Jeff Beal, Jeremy Crosmer, Marcus Norris, Lowell Liebermann, and its own composer-in-residence, J. Bruce Brown. Operas including Tosca, La Bohème, Merry Wives of Windsor, and Die Fledermaus have been presented in fully staged productions and eight different collaborations with the Indianapolis Ballet and Grand Rapids Ballet have resulted in magical productions of Sleeping Beauty and The Nutcracker. The JSO's administrative offices, Community Music School, and 300-person recital hall are located in downtown Jackson and were renovated in 2019.
